

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA, REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
AND
UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE UPON TYNE, UNITED KINGDOM

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (hereinafter called "MOU") of Academic Cooperation between Universitas Indonesia (hereinafter referred to as "UI") and University of Newcastle Upon Tyne (hereinafter referred to as the "UNuT"), collectively referred to hereinafter as the "Parties" or "Universities". The two institutions agree as follows:-

Both institutions will encourage direct contact and co-operation between their faculty and administrative staffs, departments and research institutions.

Opportunities for the following general forms of co-operation will be explored ("the Purpose"):

- Student Exchange;
- Joint research activities;
- Joint teaching and the development of new degree and training programmes;
- Visits by and interchange of staff and graduate students for research, teaching and discussions;
- Exchange of information including, but not limited to, exchange of library materials and research publications.

Specific details for the implementation of these activities will be developed mutually for specific projects.

The parties understand that all financial arrangements will have to be negotiated and will depend on the availability of funds. Each Party shall be responsible for and bear all of its own costs, risks and liabilities arising out of its obligations and efforts in accordance with the provisions of this MoU. This MoU is not intended to create any obligations for breach of which any damages may be sought by or awarded to either Party

The Parties intend to co-operate in good faith to achieve the Purpose. This does not create any legally binding rights or obligations but reflects the intentions of the Parties to work together in good faith to promote and monitor the agreed Purpose. Individual contracts may be developed to enable the delivery of the agreed Purpose.
